NSN 5220-01-134-2947

Go No-go Gage - Page 1 of 1

No

View Online at https://aerobasegroup.com/nsn/5220-01-134-2947

| End Application:                                                                                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| F108-100-cf age engine                                                                                                                |
| General Description:                                                                                                                  |
| Consists of two gage pins mounted perpendicular to its hex handle, end mark 0.030 is the go gage; other end marked 0.050 is the no-go |
| Shelf Life:                                                                                                                           |
| N/a                                                                                                                                   |
| Unit Of Measure:                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                                                                       |
| Demilitarization:                                                                                                                     |