NSN 6505-01-561-6429

Usp Mafenide Acetate Cream - Page 1 of 1

View Online at https://aerobasegroup.com/nsn/6505-01-561-6429

| Primary Container Type:                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Jar                                                                                                                                           |
| Primary Container Content Quantity:                                                                                                           |
| 16.000 ounces                                                                                                                                 |
| Administration:                                                                                                                               |
| Topical                                                                                                                                       |
| Product Name:                                                                                                                                 |
| Mafenide acetate cream 8.5% sulfamylon topical jar 16oz                                                                                       |
| Active Ingredient And Strength:                                                                                                               |
| 8.500 mafenide percentage, w/w                                                                                                                |
| Special Features:                                                                                                                             |
| 8.5% mafenide active ingredient; nonstaining; water-viscible; anti-infective cream for topical administration to burn wounds and is indicated |
| for adjunctive therapy of patients with second-and third-degree burns; avoid exposure to excessive heat (40 deg.C or above); 16 oz. Plastic   |
| jar                                                                                                                                           |
| Shelf Life:                                                                                                                                   |
| N/a                                                                                                                                           |
| Unit Of Measure:                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                                                               |
| Demilitarization:                                                                                                                             |
| No                                                                                                                                            |
| Fiig:                                                                                                                                         |
| A512I0                                                                                                                                        |
| 701210                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                                                               |