

View Online at <https://aerobasegroup.com/nsn/6505-01-577-1871>

Special Features:

The urea reagent is intended for the in vitro quantitative determination of urea in serum, plasma or urine. With 3 months reconstituted stability, the various kit sizes make it suitable for all laboratory needs. The reagent is suitable for manual use or on automated clinical chemistry analyzers. Applications for a wide range of automated analyzers are available on request.

Shelf Life:

N/a

Unit Of Measure:

--

Demilitarization:

No

Fig:

A10800