

View Online at <https://aerobasegroup.com/nsn/6630-01-185-8442>

General Description:

The pgt-100 analyzer is a custom assembled, factory tuned instrument which requires the requisitioner to specify the elements to be analyzed, and to state the voltage and frequency (hz) desired; capable of measuring sulfur and vanadium in fuel oil and in coke; lead in gasoline, paint, pewter and brass; weight percentage and plating thickness of various elements; test for arsenic in treated fabrics, sponge, rubber or plastics; chlorine in polymer film, urethane, and transformer oil; uranium in solutions and ores

Shelf Life:

N/a

Unit Of Measure:

--

Demilitarization:

No