End Application:

An/usq-t3 acmr/acmi system, cubiccorp. 94987

General Description:

Power rqmt: 120/208vac, 60hz, 3phase; functions as primary computation center for all air combat maneuvering range system, training; provides capability to process data and to perform computations to determine aircraft position and weapon launch boundary compliance in real time; provides trajectory simulations and computes and processes related data for each training aircraft in all modes of operation
